

YOUR ULTIMATE CAMPUS MAP

STEPHEN PAUL PACLIBAR illustrates an alternative map for our walls.

SCHRODINGERS THEATRE: We've heard of his cat, but did you know he also lectured in Trinity in 1943?

THE CHAPLAINCY: Spiritual and physical nourishment. Free soup on Tuesdays!

POOL TABLES: Claim victory over your mates between 10am-7pm (€6 per hr for members of The Phil or The Hist, €8 for non-members)

THE BUTTERY: Cheap student meals, including sausages, beans and chips for just a fiver.

SALMON'S STATUE: Over his dead body would women be allowed to Trinity. Salmon died in 1904, the same year the first female student was admitted.

HOUSE 6: The students' union, the shop, the place to heat up your lunch and buy Leapcards

ATM

02

03

04

05

06

07

08

SANTRY PITCHES

ST JAMES'S HOSPITAL

THE LONG ROOM HUB: Trinity's research and humanities research hub and home to conference and lecture series

